Commitment Required	To be discussed at interview
Report To	Initially to the CEO
OUR ORGANISATION
The Transforming Autism Project is a brand-new charity focusing on very early intervention for children with autism. Our goal is to truly transform lives through our life-changing Mifne Treatment Centre (details here) and our unique online Hub of comprehensive guidance, support, education and community for parents of autistic children. We also challenge conventional perceptions of autism and offer our own radical and empowering perspective. This can be seen in our TED talk, which has now been viewed by well over 80,000 people. To find out more about our goals, values and activities, please view our brochure. We are currently at a very early stage in our development, but are looking to make fast progress to make our projects viable and help as many families as soon as we can. To that end, we are looking to create a team of capable and dedicated volunteers to ensure our success.
ROLE PURPOSE
Our Delivery Team will be the engine of our activity, and is right at the heart of driving forward our key projects. In the initial phases, our key projects are likely to be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Online Support Hub (see brochure for details) • Webinars for Parents • Professional Development Training for Autism Professionals Our Delivery team may also be assigned to support and ensure the success of key areas of our marketing and fundraising activities. We are looking for both Project Managers and Delivery Leaders to make up our Delivery Team and to take us forward. Project Managers will ensure that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • projects maintain momentum and the people involved in them stay engaged • regular meetings take place and communication continues healthily between them

- actions are recorded, tracked, followed up on
- projects have robust plans and are well-costed
- projects progress according to plan
- risks and changes are managed well and proactively

Delivery Leaders have a broader and more senior role, and will form part of the charity leadership. As well as co-ordinating and supporting the project managers, they will take a wider view of our delivery, assuming full ownership and responsibility for the success of our projects and identifying ahead of time any major issues or obstacles and working to unblock them – probably with the use of a network. They will also occupy themselves with the wider success of the projects relating to marketing and fundraising, in which they would be involved.

PERSON SPECIFICATION

You will be passionate about the changes we are trying to make and their impact in the world of autistic children. You may even be (or be related to) the parent of an autistic child.

You will be a natural at making things happen and feel excited and energised at the prospect of driving them forward. You will possess the confidence, positivity and determination to achieve your goals.

We are a strongly values-driven organisation, and are committed to manifesting our values in how we relate to each other, in what we are trying to achieve and in how we do it. Our values come under 3 core headings:

Unconditional Respect

- Kindness
- Trust-based Collaboration
- Responsivity

Courage

- Pioneering Big Thinking
- Ambition
- Perspectives, Not Positions

Purpose

- Positive Approach
- Ownership
- Continuous Learning & Improvement

To find out more about our values, please see our brochure or visit <https://transformingautism.org/purpose/> to read more and to watch a video by our founder explaining them.

The Transforming Autism Project value diversity and we're committed to creating an inclusive culture where everyone is able to be themselves and to reach their full potential.
