ROLE PROFILE
Role Title	Fundraising Appeals Manager
Location	Home-Based
Commitment Required	5+ hours/week
Report To	Initially to the CEO
OUR ORGANISATION
The Transforming Autism Project is a brand-new charity focusing on very early intervention for autistic children. Our goal is to truly transform lives through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • family services in parent groups, in the home and online, • a unique Autism Parenting Hub of comprehensive guidance, support & community • and ultimately, through our life-changing Mifne Treatment Centre (details here) We also challenge conventional perceptions of autism and offer our own radical and empowering perspective. This can be seen in our TED talk, which has now been viewed by 145,000 people and received great acclaim from the autistic community. What is distinctive about our approach is that it focuses on facilitating a strong relationship between child and parents, based on understanding and trust, as a primary means of reducing anxiety and giving the child a real feeling of being looked after, so that they can focus more of their energies on realising their potential, rather than managing anxiety. We are currently at a very early stage in our development, and are trying to raise the money to launch our first phase of family services over the coming months. To that end, we are looking to create a team of capable and dedicated volunteers to ensure our success. To find out more about our goals, values and plans, please view our brochure.
ROLE PURPOSE & RESPONSIBILITIES
We're excited to be launching our first co-ordinated fundraising appeal this week to raise money to fund our pilot family services which are due to launch in the autumn. Our target is to raise £30,000 within a few weeks. However, from early September, we will not have anyone dedicated to oversee the appeal, so we are urgently looking for someone who can take the reins and see it through to completion. The appeal has been fully planned, with the strategy and all materials available and as such, we are looking for an experienced individual in Fundraising & Appeals to take this launch through to completion

Whilst this is our immediate need, there may be other opportunities to assist in the creation of future appeals and to build a base of ongoing regular donations to help ensure the charity has a regular income going forward.

There are a few more details about what our planned family services are at <https://transformingautism.org/family-services/>

PERSON SPECIFICATION

We're looking for someone passionate about the changes we are trying to make in the lives of autistic children.

In addition to this -

- You're a great pro-active researcher, you're well organised with excellent time management skills and the ability to manage multiple deadlines.
- You possess basic project management experience, capable of seeing a project through end to end, you're able to make recommendations and changes where necessary to achieve the desired goal.
- You have a good awareness of key social media platforms and how best to use these for outreach and engagement.
- Good copy writing skills are essential, with the ability to express the needs of the charity in a genuine and informative way
- You have experience working in a team, confident communicating with Ambassadors and Volunteers to ensure smooth running of the appeal and to ensure they are informed on the progress of the appeal.
- You're confident communicating on the phone, representing the charity to Trusts and donors etc
- Ideally, you have experience in working with a small charity, managing fundraising campaigns and appeals, as well as experience of working with professional Volunteers.

You'll be driven and motivated, this is an exciting yet pivotal position in the organisation to generate funds to deliver our initial parent services and future appeals.

We are a strongly values-driven organisation, and are committed to manifesting our values in how we relate to each other, in what we are trying to achieve and in how we do it. Our values come under 3 core headings:

Unconditional Respect

- Kindness
- Trust-based Collaboration
- Responsivity

Courage
